REWARD FOR TRAIN WRECKERS

Spikes Removed from the Rails Cause Derailment of Lake Shore Train

FIREMAN MEETS DEATH

The Passengers Were Badly Scared—Newly-Elected President of New York Central Assists in Summoning Aid.

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, Dec. 13.—That the partial derailment of train No. 16 on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad, near Wickliffe, east of this city, shortly before last midnight, was the result of a deliberate attempt at train wrecking, was the belief expressed by Lake Shore officials early today. They assert that spikes had been removed from the rails and the road has offered a reward of $1000 for the arrest of the person tampering with the road-bed.

Attached to the train was the private car of the newly elected president of the New York Central system, Alfred H. Smith. President Smith, after a visit to his aged mother in this city, to receive her congratulations on his promotion and a hurried western trip, was returning eastward. The private car was not derailed.

The fireman of the locomotive was killed.

President-elect Smith, after a conference with the engineer of the train Joseph Lamb, issued this statement:

"The engineer told me that while the train was proceeding about a mile from Wickliffe, the engine suddenly leaped into the air, indicating very plainly that an obstruction that could not readily be seen and yet would cause derailment, had been on the track. The accident is very mysterious, in view of this and the added fact that it was a perfectly straight stretch where the wreck occurred."

After the wreck Mr. Smith himself helped to operate a handcar four miles up the road to a telephone office to summon aid.

Rumors shortly after the accident that the attempted wrecking of the train was with an intention of killing the president-elect were laughed at by Mr. Smith.

MAN HUNTERS STILL SEEKING RALPH LOPEZ

(Associated Press Telegram)

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 13.—Stimulus was given to the manhunt in the Utah-Apex mine for Ralph Lopez by a story told to the sheriffs early today by Sam Rogers, a mine shift boss who said he had seen and talked with the desperado yesterday and the day before. The work of searching sections and then bulkheading them off from the remainder of the mine was continued.

Rogers said he had agreed to meet Lopez again today. He said the fugitive had declared he would die fighting.

"I know they have me cornered in this mine," Lopez is quoted by Rogers as telling him Thursday. "This is my grave. I've made up my mind to that. I am not going to commit suicide. I am going to wait here for the end and I shall fight whenever I have to. I could have killed more men than I have. Time and again I have followed posers in here and heard their plans for killing me. I easily could have killed every one of them. Nobody would have known I was in here if it were not for Julio Corrallo and Mike Stefano whom I thought were my friends. If I could kill them both I would be happy."

Rogers said he met Lopez in the Andy tunnel where two desperadoes were killed on Nov. 29. He said Lopez explained he had to fight at that time because he was cornered. Today this section of the mine is being cut off by bulkheads from inclines leading to other levels.

Rogers said after first seeing Lopez he told Frank Hosking, mine foreman, of the meeting. They agreed not to tell the sheriffs until Rogers had again seen Lopez, which he did yesterday.

Have You the Christmas Spirit?

That's a question you should ask yourself today, because it means a great deal to Newark whether or not you have enough of it to help the municipal Christmas tree spread its message of good will.

Did you ever stop to think what a truly wonderful idea this is? Can you imagine a more inspiring sight than a beautiful Christmas tree erected for the people of an entire city?

Newark's Christmas tree will send out from the heart of the city a Christmas spirit that will fill the hearts of struggling humanity with love, hope and courage. Every man, woman and child whose eyes feast upon the "Festive Tree" will instantly have a kindlier feeling toward all humanity. It will make nothing more than this, the tree will have served a good purpose. But this tree will also soften hardened natures, it will make all men more gentle, kind and generous, it will kindle a spark of hope in the hearts of the jobless, it will sweeten the bitterness of the toiling boys and girls, it will melt the coldness from the heart of the stranger, and cheer the loneliness from the heart of the homeless.

YOU can help do all this through the NEWARK CHRISTMAS TREE. Send your contribution, no matter what its size, to The Advocate and have a share in that comfortable feeling when you see Newark's beautifully decorated "Tree of Light."

Initiated Bill for New Workmen's Compensation Law Filed at Columbus

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, Dec. 13.—An initiated bill for a new workman's compensation law, containing 32,830 signatures, today was filed with Secretary of State Graves by Charles S. Gongwer, of Cleveland, secretary of the Ohio Equity association. The petitions were circulated in 5 counties. It is said. The petitions show that Hamilton county contributed 14,969 names.

The proposed new workmen's compensation law would allow liability insurance companies to remain in business within the state and would supplant the Green law on which the Ohio Equity association attempted to call a referendum recently denied by Secretary of State Graves on the ground of fraud in the petitions.

The Green compensation law passed by the last general assembly puts liability insurance companies out of business by compelling employers of five or more persons to have either state insurance or mutual insurance. The initiated law would let employers file a policy provided by a liability company if it chooses.

Mr. Gongwer made no statement when he filed the petitions, which were brought to the secretary of state's office in three large bundles. These will not be opened until Monday, and the only means of knowing the number of signatures they contain is by a summary furnished by Mr. Gongwer, purporting to show the number of signatures on each petition, the name of the solicitor and the county.

In distribution of names contained in the entire petition it shows nearly the same proportions as the supplementary petitions filed on the Greer law referendum, which were refused by Secretary of State Graves. Nearly half were solicited in Hamilton county and only 29 names came from Cuyahoga county. These were on a single petition circulated by Harry A. Albertson.

About 800 solicitors were employed to circulate the petitions, and the statement furnished by Mr.

Gongwer shows few of these are the persons who solicited signatures on the Warner, Kilpatrick and Green referendums. A number of solicitors worked in different counties, and a few women were employed, it is said.

Montgomery county showed the largest number of signatures next to Hamilton county, with 2652 returned from there. Other counties which showed the larger returns were: Lucas, 1721; Stark, 1553; Logan, 844; Mahoning, 720; Putnam, 588; Clark, 544; Paulding, 487; Van Wert, 462; Allen, 429 and Summit, 402.

A noticeable feature of the distribution of the petitions is that about half came from counties which do not have large cities or great manufacturing interests, indicating that many farmers signed the petitions.

Only 31,101 names are necessary to initiate a law, consequently if the petitions contain the number declared by Mr. Gongwer's statement and all are considered valid and are accepted by Secretary of State Graves, there will be more than 1000 names more than are required. Three per cent of the number of votes cast at the last election for governor are required to initiate a law. The vote for governor last year was 100,873.

This is the second attempt made to initiate a law under the initiative and referendum amendment. The other was the proposed law prohibiting the shipment of liquor into dry territory urged by the anti-saloon league and defeated at the last election when it was referred to the people.

The petition filed today indicates the renewal of the Equity association's bitter fight against legislation which it considers hostile to interests represented by the Equity association. Among the names of solicitors appearing many times in the record of petitions circulated in Hamilton county are P. J. Shields, Louis Trosky and Thomas Hennessey.

BRITISH PAPERS TO GIVE EMPLOYEES HOLIDAY ON XMAS

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Dec. 13.—The British papers have reached the unanimous agreement to suspend publication on Christmas Day, according to an announcement in the Sheffield Telegraph. A majority of the papers tried this plan last Christmas, but this year all of the papers, including the London Times, will close up shop entirely, giving many thousand workers engaged in the publication and distribution of newspapers a real Christmas holiday. The agreement applies to both morning and afternoon papers.

DYNAMITE FOUND ON PREMISES

Lives of Liquor License Commissioners of Stark County Threatened

POLICE FORCE OF CITY

Aided by Number of Private Detectives is Running Down Clues—Infernal Machine Discovered This Morning.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Canton, Dec. 13.—Excitement runs high in Canton today over the finding of two sticks of dynamite, one at the door of the real estate office of C. A. Dougherty & Company, and the other at the door of the office of the Stark-Tuscarawas Brewing company. The entire police force of the city, aided by a number of private detectives is running down clues and hopes to make arrests before night.

Dougherty is one of the liquor license commissioners of Stark county. He has received threats by anonymous and black hand letters that he would be killed. He appealed to police for protection and also has maintained a private guard about his home to insure himself from assaults and possible attempts to kill him.

The placing of the dynamite at his office is believed to be another attempt to do him injury although an employee of the office might have been an innocent victim of the plot.

Appeals have been made to the state liquor license board to send detectives here to assist in running down blackhanders, but up to this time all such appeals have been denied.

With the dynamite sticks were found badly spelled letters printed in large characters by means of a lead pencil. On the sheets left at the Stark-Tuscarawas Brewing company office the note was directed to "John Rimel," presumably for John Roumel, head of the brewing company.

The letter at Dougherty's office was directed to Dougherty. Both letters repeated former threats and notified the recipients that they would be killed. They bore emblems of daggers and black hands.

Shortly before 11 o'clock today a box of mysterious makeup was found in front of the door leading to the office of the Stark county liquor board. It was addressed to Charles A. Dougherty, a member of the board. Neither Mr. Dougherty nor Mr. Witter, the board members, was in the office at the time. The only occupant was board's clerk.

The police were called and a partial investigation was made of the box. It was wrapped with paper and held together by numerous rubber bands. Underneath appeared to be some sort of machine. Those first on the scene with the police were inclined to think that it might be an infernal machine and there was a rapid thinning of the crowd that had gathered. The police took charge of the package and to them was left the finding of a safe way to find out the contents of the box.

Convict Whose Sentence Expires at Ohio Pen Has to be Ejected from Place

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, Dec. 13.—John Davis, colored, became so attached to the Ohio penitentiary while serving a term for robbery that when his sentence expired this morning he flatly refused to leave the institution, saying that he was going to stay until the weather warmed up a bit. "I came here as a prisoner, but I was as innocent as the ruler of air," he told the deputy warden. "On the outside I always behave myself, and while I get sentenced to the workhouse offen, I never am bad enough to come to a penitentiary. Now I'm going to stay until I get ready to go." The man was told that he would have to leave, but the officials had to almost throw him out of the prison. After he was given a new suit of clothes and railroad fare to Cincinnati he still begged to at least be permitted to stay until after Christmas. "This place is as good as any home on the outside," he said as he left the prison. Davis was received at the prison May 9, 1912, to serve two years from Hamilton county.

Experts Confirm the Identity of the Famous Stolen Painting, "Mona Lisa"

(Associated Press Telegram)

Florence, Dec. 13.—The identity of the Mona Lisa found yesterday in possession of Vincenzo Perugia, was confirmed by experts in a further examination today. The picture bears the seal of the Louvre and other galleries in which it has been hung while the traces of repairs at the back of the canvas known to have been made are also visible.

The prisoner was again interrogated by the police authorities this morning. He repeated his story of having stolen the picture as an act of patriotic vengeance for Napoleon's depredations in Italy. He displayed the utmost indignation at his treatment by the police, declaring it unjust after the risks he had run and the abnegation he had demonstrated out of patriotic sentiment.

A number of prominent Italians have written to the Italian minister of public instruction requesting him to permit "Mona Lisa" to be placed on exhibition in Florence, its former home, before returning it to the French government.

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Dec. 13.—Rene Viviani, French minister of public instruction, announced at the cabinet council today that there was no doubt the picture "Mona Lisa" had been recovered.

and was now at Florence, Italy. He said he had telegraphed to the Italian premier thanking him and the Italian government for their prompt action.

Fresh proof that "Mona Lisa" was taken from the Louvre by Perugia was established today when his fingerprints taken when he was convicted some time ago of carrying firearms without a permit were compared with those on the frame and similar. The finger prints on the glass and frame were preserved by those of Perugia is apparent.

A representative of the fine arts department is on the way to Rome to bring the picture back to Paris.

"I do not believe Perugia's story of how he stole the picture," said M. Drioux, the investigating judge, who has had charge of the "Mona Lisa" case from the beginning. "It does not fit into the facts as we know them." "La Joconde" was taken before the decorators of whom Perugia was one, entered the Louvre.

M. Drioux said he had not the least doubt that the real picture had been recovered.

The French government, through Premier Doumergue, formally thanked the Italian government today for the manner in which the "Mona Lisa" case was handled.

other declined to comment on his trade in Brooklyn, pending word from the Cincinnati club, regarding his $10,000 share of the $25,000 purchase price and proposed salary of $7500. His preference and Murphy's desire to get him are believed to be known to Ebbetts, who may have been influenced in the purchase in the hope of a promise that Tinker could be used as trading material with the Cubs.

Cincinnati sold Tinker to Brooklyn for $25,000 it being announced that $10,000 of the purchase price would be paid to Tinker if he agreed to play with the club purchasing his services.

The acquisition of Herzog by Cincinnati, leads the experts to believe that the hero of the 1912 world's series may become manager of the Cincinnati team. Herzog and Garry Herrmann president of the Cincinnati club were in conference frequently during the meeting of the magnates.

Custom House and Wharves at Tampico, Where the Battle Raged.

AMERICANS ARE NOW ON U. S. SHIPS

Admiral Fletcher Orders All U. S. Citizens Out of Tampico

A HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE

Will Probably Occur at Ojinaga Where Rebels Have Surrounded Town Which Has Been Strongly Fortified by Federals.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Dec. 13.—Rear Admiral Fletcher, cabled from Tampico under date of 1 a. m. today that at 4 p. m. yesterday he had ordered all Americans out of the city and that before midnight he had transferred about 500 who were aboard the Wheeling and Tacoma to the battleships Virginia, Rhode Island and New Jersey outside.

Officials did not attach any significance to the fact that Admiral Fletcher made no mention in his despatches of his reported action in ordering the combatants to cease firing at one time yesterday. It was pointed out, however, that the admiral had the widest powers to act in his discretion. Although the admiral's reports came to Washington by cable, he is using the wireless in transmitting them to Consul Canada at Vera Cruz who is sending them by cable from that point.

The admiral reported that all foreign women and children were out of the city at 1 o'clock this morning but that some men preferred to remain. He also stated that the situation was "getting worse" and that skirmishing continued with the Mexican gunboat Bravo shelling the position of the Constitutionals.

Admiral Fletcher asked the navy department to make public announcement that all foreigners were safe and that it was impossible to send personal messages to all who have relatives on the ships. The navy department has engaged the Ward liner Moro castle which will arrive at Tampico early tomorrow to receive such refugees as may wish to leave.

The navy department later issued this statement:

"A cablegram has been received from Rear Admiral Fletcher, sent from Tampico, Mexico, 2 p. m., Friday, which conveys the information that there has been no cessation of fighting, but that the fighting is not serious. Aguilar was reported to have just arrived with 3000 men and taken a position on the right bank of the river. That there were enroute to Tampico the Mexican gunboats Vera Cruz and Progreso. Admiral Fletcher has received information that both Federals and Constitutionals have shot or hanged about 65. Three of these men were hanged in the forenoon from within the Federal lines in full view of the shipping city. Admiral Fletcher made formal protest in the name of humanity against the practice. He reports that no foreigners or property have been injured and that the New Jersey is enroute to Tampico."

"The army transport Sumner leaves Galveston today for Tampico. Arrangements have been made to care for all Americans at Tampico. They number about 500."

HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE PREDICTED; CITY FORTIFIED

Ojinaga, Mex., Dec. 13.—The Federal forces were at a loss today to know what had become of General Salvador Merado, the ranking officer of the Mexican army in the north. It was feared that he with 1500 Federals had been intercepted by Rebels in a mountain pass outside of Ojinaga and that he would be attacked by superior forces before the Rebels attacked Ojinaga. Merado left the front here to escort in some straggling refugees.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Ojinaga, Mex., Dec. 13.—Perched on the hills of Ojinaga which commands a sweeping view of the nearest desert and cañons, the Federal army today had its guns trained in expectation of an attack by the four or five thousand Rebels who are rapidly surrounding the town. The commanding position of the Federals with trenches and forts fixed for resistance will make it impossible for the Rebels to storm the place without heavy loss of life. The Rebels will have to climb almost straight up to the town and be constantly exposed to fire except for a slight shelter afforded by mesquite bushes.

The four thousand Federals encamped here after their retreat from Chihuahua have resigned themselves to the expected attack and the Rebels under General Herrera have announced their intention of attacking. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 4.)

Croup and Cough Remedy

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back, sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often are irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste eat about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

LABOR NOTES

Regular meeting of Trades and Labor Assembly tomorrow (Sunday) morning. Be sure to attend. Matters of importance will be for discussion. Some good speakers may be with us. Give them a hearty welcome.

All committees will make their reports for the year. Now work will be taken up, which will be interesting and very important. Some of the matters to be considered will be the appointment of a sanitary plumber inspector, which the state law says must be done in all cities of over five thousand population, and done now.

Our last meeting, November 23, was well attended and very interesting. President Morgan raised for order on time and the chairman duly opened the assembly. Roll call of officers showed all present, and the minutes of the last meeting were approved as read by Secretary Johnson. Many communications were read by the secretary and referred to proper committees. One other matter that will be under consideration will be the putting in by the county commissioners a hospital ward for the benefit of the unfortunate that have to remain there.

The condition of organized labor is very good but the unorganized work people do not fare so well, and now is the time to start a movement to organize all craftsmen, laborers and workmen, so they can enjoy some of the benefits of unionism. Brother, will you assist in the work? If so, come to the assembly and say so. Now is the time to commence.

STOMACH MISLEADS PHYSICIANS

East Newark Woman Told Incurable.

Mrs. Elizabeth De Lancey of East Newark, who has for years been a sufferer from what physicians told her was Heart Disease, says a good word for Dr. Engle.

"I have been almost an invalid for several years, hardly able to attend to my household duties and at times had almost given up hope, particularly when the doctors told me that I had Organic Heart Trouble. I resolved to make one more trial and I went to Dr. Engle, in the Newark Trust Building, and began treatment with him several weeks ago. He said my heart was not affected and as a proof that he was correct, I am now feeling fine. My heart does not bother me and my stomach is in good condition. While I am not yet entirely cured, I feel that I am on the right road and can cheerfully recommend my friends to go to Dr. Engle if they are suffering from any stomach trouble."

There are being maintained in Columbus two so-called Republican press bureaus. One is presided over by Mr. James Boyle, who issues a weekly printed letter to Republican editors, while the other is conducted more or less clandestinely by Dr. Maris. We say "clandestinely" because in the foreword to Mr. Boyle's letter he states explicitly that his letter is the ONLY one authorized by the Republican State Organization, consisting of the State Central and State Executive Committees; that his bureau is the ONLY one supported by the Republican State Organization and he invites contribution for the support of such bureau. All this is perfectly legitimate, open, frank and above-board. Dr. Maris' letter to Republican editors, thus disowned, must be stamped as illegitimate. It has not the support of and is not countenanced by the Republican State Organization. It is not known who contributes to its support at this time.

Being irresponsible the output of the Maris bureau is uninfluenced by either facts or truth. Unfortunately, and perhaps for this reason, it is a trifle more popular with Republican papers than is the Boyle bureau. Take the report of the school survey and the proceedings of the recent school congress for instance. Both these were mere matters of news, of absolute fact. Mr. Boyle had nothing to say of either. The other bureau sent out news stories to the effect that the Governor proposed to prostitute the public school system of the state to the base uses of a political machine; that through the State Superintendent of Public Instruction he proposed to appoint all the teachers of the state, etc., etc. These were pure fabrications without the remotest warrant. They were denounced by Dr. Britton of the School Survey; by Representative Thatcher, the Republican Chairman of the School Survey Commission; by Dr. Thompson, President of the Ohio State University and possible Republican Candidate for Governor and by the daily press generally without regard to political faith. However, the disowned bureau complacently sent out the same story again, reiterated it in detail and amplified it even after the three-thousand delegates to the school congress had heard the Governor declare he would veto any school measure that winked at politics or partisanship. On Saturday as these three thousand delegates were wending their ways homeward, having voted with practical unanimity to sustain the Governor's position on the school question, some Republican papers who accept their pabulum from the illegitimate bureau were printing the same old stories and announcing that the Governor had been unhorsed at the school. The truth is, and every reputable daily newspaper regardless of politics attested it, that the school congress was a stormy affair made so by a little clique of dissenters who sought to create trouble; that many emissaries of the old standard gamflirted about among the delegates; in a vain effort to arouse opposition; that charges of all sorts were made at the instigation of those who stand by this illegitimate bureau, but that in the end, when the Governor closed the debate with a ringing speech and a rising vote was called upon the question of endorsing the report of the School Survey Commission, three thousand delegates rose to their feet, voted "aye" and sang America. No thirty delegates remained in their seats. They represented all the opposition that was left.

President Stronger Than Party

(Ashland Press.)

Samuel Blythe has an article in last week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post on "President Wilson and the Country," lover of politics should read.

Blythe recently returned from a trip to the Pacific Coast and the article is a summary of his impressions. Its underlying thought is that President Wilson is popular with all classes of voters, everywhere, and is far stronger than his party. Blythe talked with voters in every walk of life and heard the president's praises sung by them all—with the sole exception of the rapidly diminishing number of stand patters in the Republican party who still persist in their determination to be blind followers of the dead past.

That President Wilson is stronger than his party no one familiar with political conditions will be inclined to deny. It is heard on every hand. It is reflected in the daily news dispatches. It is plainly shown by the attitude of the Democratic members in both branches of Congress.

President Wilson's profound knowledge of governmental questions, his clearness of vision, his lofty character, his freedom from cant and hypocrisy, and his passion to serve the whole people, have made a tremendous impression upon the country.

Another thing about him that has pleased not a few voters of every shade of political opinion is the ease with which he smashes precedents so dear to the old line politicians and the society elite. He has ignored more precedents during his first six months of his administration than have been ignored by all the presidents since the Civil War, the result being that the politicians and society folk at the National Capital have been shocked and jolted until they are dizzy. And every time the President gives them a shock his stock goes up "in the back townships."

President Wilson is stronger than his party, and is growing stronger with the country every day.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 13.—[Special.]—High cost of living may be discussed in connection with the immigration bill which will be taken up early in the session. Several statesmen have been figuring out that immigration is one cause for the high cost of living because the immigrants go to the cities and become consumers instead of producers. By restricting immigration they say the number of consumers will be reduced.

Meanwhile efforts are being made by agricultural authorities to have the immigrants go to farms, which is not an easy task. Farming is new to most of them. The "back to the farm" movement has not yet reached proportions which promise much in reducing the cost of living, although the agricultural department is struggling valiantly for it.

Our Generous Government.

In his speech against the Hetch-Hetchy bill Senator Borah of Idaho pointed out that the government transferred to corporations 77,609,259 acres of public lands and to states, subsequently turned over to corporations, 37,864,726 acres. These grants were made for what was once supposed to be a good purpose, but were unnecessary.

"During the last fifty or sixty years," said Borah, "we have been very liberal with the public domain. Without let or hindrance we have granted to whomsoever would come and ask. The patrimony which the government has given to private corporations in the last sixty years is far in excess of all the patrimony granted by the different kings and rulers of the earth to their favorite satellites and retainers. It has been based upon no legitimate consideration and in many instances upon corrupt motives."

Four Parties in One State.

Discussion of the Hetch-Hetchy bill brought out many interesting points, important and otherwise. For instance, one senator discovered that there were four different political parties represented in the California delegation in the house—Democratic, Republican, Progressive and Independent. Congressman Kent styles himself Independent, as the policies and tenets of none of the three parties exactly suit him.

Counting a Quorum.

The senate has steadfastly held out against having a quorum counted in that body, but John Sharp Williams has made a move in that direction. He proposes to amend the rules so that a senator may announce a pair and at the same time state that he wishes to be counted to make a quorum. Some of the old timers will fight such an innovation.

Badgering Murdock.

The Progressives have battled manfully for an open caucus and a caucus upon every possible matter. Hence when John Fitzgerald found that Victor Murdock, the Progressive leader; Jim Mann, the Republican leader, and Oscar Underwood, the Democratic leader, had all agreed in fixing up committee places for MacDonald, the Progressive from Michigan, he turned his current of sarcastic comment upon Murdock. He accused the Progressive leader of bossism, such as employed by Underwood and Mann. "Oh, Mr. Speaker," said Fitzgerald in a mock wall, "how times have changed, how times have changed."

Senatorial Quips.

While making a speech on the Hetch-Hetchy bill Senator Reed of Missouri said that the two things most lacking in the great west were population and water. Just at that juncture Senator Martine of New Jersey, who was opposing Reed, broke in with a comment.

"There are people in this world," retorted Reed, "to whom the mere mention of water is obnoxious."

"Had I been unfortunate enough," retorted Martine, "to have lived on the borders of the muddy Missouri and to drink water that was half water and half sand I should have echoed the sentiments of the senator from Missouri."

"Why," responded Reed, "it would not have affected at all either the generosity of soul or the physical habit of my friend."

Played All Season With Broken Bone; An X-Ray Discovery

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Madison, Wis., Dec. 13.—"Tubby" Keeler, right guard on the University of Wisconsin eleven this year, and captain-elect for the coming season, played throughout the Badger schedule last fall with a broken shoulder bone, it developed here today.

At the conclusion of the season the men who were in the Varsity squad went through a thorough examination by the university medical authorities and an X-ray disclosed a break of which Keeler had not been aware. A year ago he injured his shoulder, but the injury was not of such a serious nature as to keep him out of the season's game. He will be kept out of athletics for at least two months and his loss will be a serious blow to the track team on which he was expected to prove a point winner in the shot put.

STATE BOARD WILL ACT ON SUGGESTION OF LOCAL OFFICIAL

Acting at the suggestion of Probate Judge Robbins, Hunter of Licking county, it is probable that the state board for the relief and benefit of the needy blind will endeavor soon to confer with the eighty-eight probate judges in the state with a view to arriving at a standard uniformity in the matter of awards.

This matter recently was brought to the attention of the state board by Judge Hunter, and in a communication received here Saturday from Dr. W. K. Rogers, of the board, the suggestion is commended as being timely, and early action is quite probable.

Judge Hunter has submitted to the state board the claims and relief petitions under the statute for relief of the blind, and he fixed the awards in proportion to the needs of the respective applicants. There being no standard of uniformity agreed upon, the judge desired to reserve the right to modify his allowances to conform with such a standard as must be found to exist elsewhere. It was in this connection that he found the necessity for uniformity.

The object is to make like awards in each county in like cases.

Uncle Walt

The Plutocrat.

When we need capital to boost our village street car line, we seek the rich man at his roost, and like the beggar's whine. If he will only spend his money to help our modest game, we'll treat him as we'd treat a god, and ever bless his name. We'll promise any blamed old thing, we'll give him laurel crown, if he will only come and bring his bundle to our town. We keep upon that rich man's trail, and bore him in his haunt, until he comes and brings the kale, and builds the line we want. The brass band meets him at the train, the local bards sing lays, and orators their windpipes strain in trumpeting his praise. But when the line is built at last, and we're rejoiced and laughed, we soon forget the recent past, and hint around of graft. Once more upon the rich man's trail we're camping, days and nights, but now we'd send him off to jail and strip him of his rights. The village statesmen think it sport his actions all to curb; cheap lawyers bring their suits in court, that rich man to disturb. Oh, who would be a plutocrat, to suffer and endure, with brickbats flying round his hat? Far better to be poor?

With Ohio Club Women

Conducted by Mrs. Charles S. Rockhill, Chairman of the Publicity Department of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs

7042 Patents Granted to Women.

Professor Starr of Chicago is reported as saying that no woman has ever invented anything of value. Unless he has been misquoted, he declared that this was one proof among many of women's inferiority; and his alleged remarks have been snatched up with glee by the opponents of equal rights.

Few persons except those who have made a study of the subject may have any idea how many valuable inventions have been made due to women.

In China, silk weaving was invented by the wife of the fourth emperor, for which divine honors are still paid to her. Japanese bronze work was the invention of a woman. In India, weaving of cashmere shawls was invented in the seclusion of the harem by a princess, who gave her husband such wise council that he changed her name from Nourmabel (Light of the Harem) to Nourjehan (Light of the World), and had coins struck bearing this title. Attar or roses were invented by either the same woman or her mother, authorities differing on this point.

The secret of Venetian point lace, which was lost in the thirteenth century, was rediscovered in the nineteenth by an Italian workwoman. The beautiful gause called "woven wind" is a woman's invention.

When Harriet Hosmer took her American brains to Rome, she found out the way to make marble from limestone, which the Italian government had long been seeking in vain.

Kept Pace in America.

In this country woman's progress in invention has kept pace with her progress in education. Mary Kees was the first American woman to take out a patent, 1808. It was for weaving straw with silk or thread. At that time girls received hardly any education and during the next quarter of a century only fifteen patents were taken out by women. These included a globe for teaching geography, a baby jumper, a fountain pen, a deep-sea telescope, and the first cook stove.

In 1834 women had a few more educational privileges, but not many, and in the next twenty-five years women took out patents for 35 inventions. By 1859 high schools were open to women, and in 1861 the Civil War came. The high school taught them to use their minds, and the war forced them out into many new avenues of work. During the quarter of a century from 1859 to 1884 the number of inventions patented by women rose to 1500. Women who took their husband's places on the farm invented many improved agricultural instruments, especially in the West; women went into shoeshops and immediately began to take out patents on machinery; women nursed in the hospitals and invented improved bandages, canteens, camp-beds, etc. Colleges and manual training have continued to develop the latest inventiveness of women, and during the 25 years from 1884 to 1910, some 7042 patents have been granted them.

Several important inventions have been due to women. Mrs. Harriet Strong, who began by inventing a corset, afterwards moved with her husband to California, and after his death she took out patents for reservoir and dams, and for a device for the storage of water. Mrs. Ada Van Pelt, while her husband was postmaster at Oakland, Calif., invented a permutation lock with 3000 combinations, also a letter box for the outside of the houses.

Women's Vote is Success in Erin. Suffrage from an Irishwoman's viewpoint, was the subject of a recent address given by Miss Gertrude M. O'Reilly of Dublin, in Newark, N. J. The speaker wore the ancient Irish costume, but her ideas were modern and up-to-date. She treated the common objections with good-natured ridicule.

"Nice women, they say, shouldn't go to the polls because they would meet such an undesirable element. That's a fine compliment to men voters, isn't it? And don't you meet undesirable everywhere? I sat next to an intoxicated man coming over in the subway this evening, and if any one had asked me I should have said that he was very undesirable. But, as I understand it, you don't have to make common friends of the people you meet at the polls."

Ever since 1898, the women of Ireland have had a vote for all officers except members of parliament. Miss O'Reilly gave a number of instances in which woman's ability in house-keeping has been welcomed in Ireland to help straighten out municipal affairs.—Ex.

Spreading the Club Idea.

A woman high in the councils of the General Federation of Women's Clubs said recently, that the greatest benefit that had followed in the train of the club movement was in the growth of the woman herself.

Mingling with other women each bent on some good work, brings out the best there is in most of us, is the opinion of this same authority and the broader vision, tolerance, sympathy and interest which is developing in the individual women is sure to make for better, more companionable wives and mothers, neighbors and citizens.

Special Tenement House Inspector.

Louisville club women have secured the appointment of a special tenement house inspector, who enforces the sanitary code. For years the club women have had clean-up days and each year it was found that more people took an interest in keeping their yards clean all the time. It was the close relation of dirt to disease that stimulated the successful campaign for an inspector to educate tenement dwellers to an observance of the sanitary regulations.

Club Notes.

"Whenever I want anything done in civic matters I call on the women," declared Mayor Smart of Evanston in an address to the Illinois State Federation of Women's Clubs last week.

"They do better work than the men, they have more time and they take more time to attend to civic matters than men do."

"What is said to be Chicago's first firm of women lawyers has been organized and will open for business November 1. This firm is to be known as Kelley, Sellers & Clark.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs has made the Pennsylvania State College a gift of $6,200, the proceeds of which will maintain scholarships for two women of the state.

The third women's chamber of commerce in the United States will be established in Des Moines, Iowa, upon a permanent basis this month.

In one tobacco factory in Japan there are more than 2,000 girls employed.

CLAIM THE NEW CHILD LABOR LAW BEING VIOLATED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.] Pittsburgh, Dec. 12.—Declaring that thousands of women and children in the Pittsburgh district are employed in violation of the new child labor law, Francis Feehan, first vice president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and chief inspector of the state department of labor today announced complete plans for enforcement of the statute. He called upon labor and civic organizations for information concerning infractions of the law, saying that even anonymous complaints were being investigated. A large number of warrants have already been served on employers of women who are charged with compelling them to work more than 54 hours a week.

MR. SYLVESTER E. SMITH.

MR. SYLVESTER E. SMITH, 2609 South Grand Ave., St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Peruna is the best friend a sick man can have."

"A few months ago I came here in a wretched condition. Exposure and dampness had ruined my once robust health. I had had catarrhal affections of the bronchial tubes, and for a time there was a doubt as to my recovery."

"My good honest old doctor advised me to take Peruna, which I did and in a short time my health began to improve rapidly. The bronchial trouble gradually disappeared, and in three months my health was fully restored."

"Accept a grateful man's thanks for his restoration to perfect health. Ask Your Druggist for Free Peruna Lucky Day Almanac for 1914."

ENJOY SUPPER PREPARED AND SERVED BY MEN

One hundred and fifty men partook of a supper at the Second Presbyterian church Friday night, the meal being prepared by men, served by men and the dishes washed by men and unusual as it may seem, there was nothing but highest praise of the cuisine and service when the men pushed back from the table with an expression of entire satisfaction on their faces.

Col. W. C. Wells had charge of the kitchen and E. T. Johnson bossed an efficient corps of waiters.

A feature of the evening's pleasure was an address by A. F. McGarra, a member of the Presbyterian General Assembly committee. He talked on "The Business of the Church," dealing with the financial problems which arise in church work and with relation of the church and Sunday school in caring for children.

CONTRIBUTE TO FUND FOR PUBLIC CHRISTMAS TREE

The latest contributors to the big municipal tree which is to be erected in the court house park are Masters Korman and Jack Wingenter, bright little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Wingenter in West Church street.

The boys read in the Advocate of the proposed tree and the Christmas carols which are to be sung on Christmas eve. They also read of the treat that is to be accorded those children whose parents are unable to buy them treats so dear to the child's heart in the yuletide season. Both Korman and Jack were desirous of helping and so they took a portion of their "Christmas money" and brought it to the Advocate. Their act is certainly commendable and their subscription is gladly received.

VALUE OF WIRELESS DEMONSTRATED BY STORMS ON LAKE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.] Washington, Dec. 12.—The value of wireless has been demonstrated according to the department by the fact that none of the 19 American vessels lost in the storm which swept the Great Lakes last month was equipped with wireless, whereas the vessels which had wireless received warnings of the coming storm and sought safety. This information has come to the department from its radio inspectors at Cleveland and Chicago.

About 50 vessels are preparing to install wireless equipment, the inspectors report, as a result of the lesson.

The Cleveland inspector says that just before the storm three vessels cleared from Detroit, one with wireless, two without. The one with wireless was saved, while the others were lost.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Thursday afternoon, Mrs. John Robison entertained at her home in Logan avenue the Colonial Embroidery club. The afternoon was spent socially and after the business session the members were favored with a solo by Mrs. Forbes Gamble. The guests were then seated around the table where a delicious lunch was served to the following: Mrs. Jarcus, Mrs. George Haden, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. McNeely, Mrs. Samuel Morrison, Mrs. Charles Lederer, Mrs. Forbes Gamble and Miss Ina Ross. Mrs. Gamble and Miss Ross were guests of the club.

A most delightful session of the Unity Reading circle was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. S. Mitchell in Granville street. Following was the program: Quotations—Scribner. Women of the Bible—Mrs. Moore. Review, "Ben Hur"—Mrs. Rock-oven.

Critic—Mrs. Mitchell.

A pleasant social session followed, and an elaborate luncheon was served by Mrs. Mitchell, assisted by Mrs. Moninger and Mrs. Bowers.

The club will next meet with Mrs. E. V. Bowers in Eighth street on January 13.

A simple and pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kear on West Wyandot avenue, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, when Paul T. Simpson of Johnstown, cousin to Mrs. Kear, and Miss Edna H. Taylor of Sycamore, were united in marriage by Rev. G. W. Vorhis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Upper Sandusky. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of friends, including Miss Marguerite McClain, of Pitt township, and Harry Ellis of near Sycamore. Potted plants and Christmas decorations trimmed the rooms. The bride was attired in a mahogany traveling suit with hat of the same color.

Mr. Simpson is the son of Mrs. Mary Simpson, of Johnstown, who is a sister to Mrs. W. F. Lockwood, in this city. He is a young man engaged in the milling business at Johnstown, where he is prominent and well known—Upper Sandusky Chief.

Miss Grace Raison was the honor guest at an evening party given on Friday by Miss Katherine Musser at her home in Hudson avenue. The event was a miscellaneous shower and a delicious supper was served. The guests were: Misses Grace Raison, Margaret Moore, Clotilde Howard, Irma Alsapach, Lucille McEwen, and Verna Harding.

The wedding of Miss Nellie Baker of Seventh street and Mr. Emmett Edwards, will be an event of Thursday, December 18. Mr. Edwards is an employee of the J. Gleichauf company.

Mrs. George B. Gregory has issued invitations for an afternoon tea Friday at 3 o'clock at her home, 405 South First street, in honor of Mrs. Franklin Wagner of New York, and Miss Frances Priest of Newark, O., the latter a guest of Mrs. George N. Safford. About seventy have been asked to meet the out of town guests.—Register-Gazette, Rockford, Ill.

Owing to sickness the Unity Sewing Circle will not meet with Mrs. Buckingham next Tuesday.

A very pretty Colonial tea was given by the Hetuck Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. D. M. Black in Hudson avenue on Friday afternoon. A number of the members appeared in Colonial costume, and the afternoon hours were spent in needlework. A number of guests of the chapter were entertained.

The City Federation of Women's clubs, through its committee for the sale and distribution of the Red Cross Seals, has arranged for the public sale of these seals at the dry goods stores about the square. Beginning at Davies' store they will be placed on sale on Tuesday, Dec. 16th and Wednesday the 17th. On Tuesday the Unity Reading Circle, and on Wednesday the Coterie will have charge of the seals. On Thursday, Dec. 18th, and Friday the 19th, the stamps will be found at the store of Meyer & Lindorf, in the care of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Thursday, and the Monday Talks on Friday. At the Carroll store on Saturday, Dec. 20th, the Progressive club will sell the seals, while the Review club will have charge of them on Monday, Dec. 22nd, the 23rd and Wednesday, the 24th, the sale will be effected at the store of the W. H. Mazey Co. On this Tuesday the Research club will have charge of them, and on Wednesday, the busiest day of all these busy days, the work will be shared by the Investigators and the Photozeteans. Beginning on Friday, the 19th, and continuing on through Wednesday, the 21st, the various chapters of The King's Daughters will be on duty at the postoffice throughout the days and the evenings.

The committee of the Federation having charge of the seals has thus systematized the work after much thoughtful consideration. The seals may always be found at No. 115 Hudson avenue, the home of Mrs. W. H. Davis, chairman of the committee, who finds it necessary, as the sale assumes large proportions to make this rule inviolable: that all seals for this public sale can only be obtained from her at her home. But if the person, or committee woman, is unable to come for them, a telephone order will be promptly filled, and Mrs. Davis will either send or bring them to the store designated. With this systematization of the distribution and sale, the humanitarian movement back of it, and the fact that so per cent of the proceeds is to be expended in Newark, the women of the Federation feel that they can count upon the support of all citizens. The purchase of even a few seals will be appreciated, and a few pennies expended by many citizens will soon swell the total proceeds to a sum that will bring comfort and health into many a home.

IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

Why Not Give a Hobby Party?

If bridge, or Five Hundred, or any of the many other forms of card parties palls, and something beside dancing is desired for the program for an evening affair, why not give a hobby party? It will make a lot of fun in itself and offer a varied program, and have a special point of interest for every one who attends, for every one enjoys exploiting his hobby.

In sending out the invitations, explain that it is a hobby party, and that each one is expected to bring something connected with his hobby, or in some way illustrate it. Some can do it by dressing, as, for instance, those who are fond of tramping or camping, can wear camping dress. The hostess can decorate her home to exploit her own hobby, if she wishes, or she can illustrate various hobbies which she knows will be "ridden" by her guests.

It will be an odd looking company that will assemble. For some will be dressed in costume and others will bring all sorts of contrivances, from cameras to stuffed birds, cooking utensils and fancy work. The mere looking over of the various things that will be brought will prove interesting and cause much comment and laughter. But the real interest of the evening will center about the little talk each will give upon his hobby. He can explain the pleasure of it, how it works, his many interesting adventures in "riding" it—whatever he deems will be most entertaining in connection with it.

The camera enthusiast can bring some of his snaps, and will no doubt have interesting anecdotes to tell of getting some of his pictures. The traveler may be able to show some souvenirs of his trips, and will no doubt have some good stories of what he has seen or where he has been. The man or woman who rides will have some tales of horsemanship or races. Card players will get off into congenial little groups, and snatches of "What is trump?" and "Why didn't you lead clubs?" will be heard. Those whose hobby is music can play or sing for the crowd, and the cook, if so desired, can demonstrate her ability in the culinary line by making candy or popping corn or toasting marshmallows. There will be such diversity of entertainment offered that there is not likely to be a dull minute, and the affair will be voted a decided success.

If some of the favorite dishes of the guests can be included among the refreshments it adds to the merriment. But even if this is not done, such a party cannot fail to be most enjoyable, for every one becomes an enthusiast when his hobby is concerned, and always enjoys himself talking about that which he is most keenly interested in.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A card showing the association building at Houston, Texas, was received from C. C. Forry. Mr. Forry says that it is the finest building he has ever seen.

The board of directors met for the regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening. An interesting feature of the meeting was the report of the State Boys Conference given by the delegates who represented the local association.

The two shop meetings at Halsey's and the B. and O. were well attended this week. F. E. Holloway spoke at Halsey's and Frank L. Johnson at the B. and O. Mrs. J. C. Bonshire, Miss Bonshire and Miss Fletcher assisted with the music.

The Junior Bible class on Tuesday evening was attended by 12 boys. The lesson was on the life of Christ.

The association building will be open all day New Years. In the afternoon and evening there will be orchestra music in the social rooms, and special exercises in the gym. Basketball game in the evening. No admission fee. Shop and factory boys have a special invitation.

M. W. Hodgman of Cleveland and John L. Andrews of Kingsville, Ohio, students at Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, and Oberlin, respectively, spent one night in the building.

Athens, O., made a call and took lunch at the association on Thursday.

By communicating with the Y. M. C. A. secretary at Ellis Island, N. Y., the association was able to assist in the release of Mattie Vesila, a Roumanian whose brother resides in this city.

President C. C. Metz of the Board of Directors is serving jury duty in Columbus. Mr. Metz says he has occasion to go to the Y. M. C. A. there for his lunches.

High School Notes

The junior class will give the Christmas program next Friday, Dec. 19 at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting. Miss Clara McDonald and Miss Lindsay are assisting the juniors in preparing this program which consists of three scenes from Silas Marner.

Superintendent Hawkins and Principal Barnes attended a dinner given by the Schoolmasters club at the Southern Hotel, Columbus, last evening.

At a meeting of the Girls Athletic Association, Grace Jones was elected president; Nellie Russell, vice president; Margaret Moore, secretary; Mildred Gore, manager of basketball; Miss Janet Jones, faculty adviser.

The first preliminary debate will be held Monday at 3 o'clock. There are thirty-two entries. In this first debate twenty-four will be selected who will enter a second preliminary. From this number twelve will be selected for the third and last preliminary. Prof. Parker has charge of the debating and from the outlook Newark will give Mt. Vernon and Zanesville a hard rub this year.

Out of the total enrollment of 650 in the high school, 104 pupils come from outside the school district. Practically all of the 104 are Patterson graduates and the tuition of $38.00 for each pupil for the year is paid by the township. This means a revenue of almost $4,000.

The Seniors with Donald Kissane as president are taking steps toward the matter of the class play for commencement. Already a committee has been appointed and it is busily engaged looking over plays.

A card from James Barnett, class of 1910, shows he has not forgotten his alma mater. James is with the Firestone Rubber company of Akron, and is making a great success. He expects to spend a few days at his home north of the city during the holidays.

The Girls Athletic Association is contemplating having the Denison Glee club appear in Newark some time in January. The club always receives a royal welcome in Newark.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 12.—The first conviction under a new state law concerning fraudulent advertising of merchandise was secured today when Wm. H. Maloney was fined $20. The complainant testified to paying $20 for a rug advertised to be worth $5; and which later was found to have been bought at a department store for $12.50. Judge Clark imposed a minimum fine, as this was a test case. The state of Ohio recently passed a law similar to that in force in this state.

Labrador has an area of 206,000 square miles, although the population is only 400. Thus you know where there's plenty of room for you if you don't like the way the landlady treats you.

It is estimated that if all men in this country swore off using tobacco for one year, enough money would be raised to pay the coal and auto fire bills of seventeen families for nine weeks.

Insects That Walk on Water.

Insects that walk on the water by means of pneumatic floats are the familiar water and the pond skater spider. Not many people know why they can walk on the water. The pond skater really walks on pneumatic floats. There are tiny hairs on the feet of this insect, so fine that they cannot be seen, that are arranged to collect air. The amount collected in and about these hairs is sufficient to allow the insect to float or walk upon the surface of the water. As each foot is put down it forms a cuplike depression or tiny pit in the water. The foot does not sink because the air bubble that has been formed is too light to let it. A fine covering of hair protects the water spider, too, and even if it is submerged in the water it is never really wet. The hair keeps a layer of air between its body and the water. It looks like a white pearl when below the surface. The scientific name of this curious insect is the Vela currens.—Chicago Tribune.

Lightship Risks.

It would seem that the perils of a lightship crew in a gale exceed even those of a lighthouse keeper. Mr. Talbot, in his "Lightships and Light-houses," gives an example of the havoc played by one Atlantic wave in the case of the lightship that guards the terrible rocky fangs known as the "Seven Stones," which lie between Land's End and the Scilly Isles: "Once a wave tumbled aboard, crashed a man against the pump, knocked him half senseless, picked up the lifeboat and threw it against the deck-house, and in so doing caught another member of the crew, mauling his thigh badly in passing. Two out of the seven men forming the crew were thus put hors de combat by a single wave."

The lightship is a British idea, and the first ever used was placed in the mouth of the Thames in 1713.

Peculiar Japanese Rite.

Segitera temple, in the province of Ise, Japan, is the scene each July of a peculiar rite dedicated to the worship of Acaianatha, the faithful servant of Buddha. The rite is known as a "goma" (a corruption of Sanskrit "homa") or "burning." Buddha taught that the cause of suffering is desire, and therefore the priests of the Shingon, a Japanese sect of Buddhism, kindle a fire to consume all human desires, at the same time offering prayers to Acaianatha. In one matter the rite may be said to defeat its own ends, for it attracts a crowd of farmers full of desire to obtain embers or ashes from the fire which is supposed to have consumed all desires. The tradition is that the possession of an ember or ashes from the sacred fire insures a farmer good crops the next autumn.—Argonaut.

Most Civilized Nation.

The question "Which is the most civilized nation on earth?" is difficult to answer. Civilization is a very elastic term and is understood differently in different times and places. In scientific attainment, education, wealth and all the things that go along with wealth the United States, Great Britain and Germany would appear to lead the procession, with some other nations following closely; but, taking all things into consideration, eliminating the sole matter of wealth, the most civilized country on earth is probably Norway. In that far northern land the ideal civilization—that is, the civilization that rests on common sense and justice—seems to have matured to a greater extent than it has anywhere else.—New York American.

His Card.

E. H. Sothern, the actor, confesses to a habit which sometimes has its disadvantages. It is his custom to make memoranda of things which occur to him from time to time on his calling cards or other odd bits of paper he may have in his pockets. He tells this as one of his experiences. "I had occasion to call at the home of Grover Cleveland, and I sent up my card. In a few minutes Mrs. Cleveland came in to receive me, the card still in her hand and about her mouth a rather odd smile.

"I think perhaps I had better return this to you," she said.

"I took it. On the back I had written: 'Socks, pajamas, one dozen collars.'"—New York Tribune.

A Hearty Welcome.

Mrs. Clay telephoned to a friend that she would come down and spend the day.

"Well, here I am!" she exclaimed cheerily as the little daughter of the hostess opened the door.

"Yes," replied the child; "I'm glad to see you, and I know mother will be glad, too, for she said this morning when you phoned that she was thankful she was going to have the visit over with."—Lippincott's.

The Dragon Fly.

Perhaps the most wonderful of all insects is the dragon fly. It goes through the air at the rate of sixty miles an hour and can stop instantly or can change its course backward or sideways without lessening its speed or changing the position of its body.

Malapropian.

Visitor—Your island gets a lot of sentiment out of its pipe. Mrs. B.—Oh, goodness, yes! It is perfectly disgusting to see him clean it! Judge.

Most of the trouble is due to the fact that half of the people are men and the other half women.—Philadelphia Ledger.
